

Eddie Treviño, Jr.
County Judge

For Immediate Release

October 14, 2020

Contact: Eddie Treviño, Jr.

Cameron County Judge

POSSIBLE RE-OPENING OF BARS OR SIMILAR ESTABLISHMENTS

All residents and visitors to Cameron County, the Office of Cameron County Judge Eddie Treviño, Jr., is currently evaluating the possibility to opt in with the Texas Alcohol and Beverage Commission (TABC) to allow bars or similar establishments to reopen considering the best and safest practices. County Judge Treviño is consulting with the Cameron County Health Authority, the Cameron County Health Department, and the Mayors of each municipality as we prepare the new Order. At this point, no bars in Cameron County are authorized to re-open until a final decision has been made.

Furthermore, County Judge Treviño, Jr., is consulting with the Cameron County Health Authority, the Cameron County Health Department, and the Mayors of each municipality to determine procedures and restrictions regarding safe Halloween activities.

The Office of Cameron County Judge Eddie Treviño, Jr. will provide updates as needed.

###