CAMERON COUNTY TO HOST FIRST-DOSE MODERNA VACCINATION CLINIC, ALLOCATE SECOND-DOSE VACCINES TO PRIMARY HEALTH CARE DOCTOR'S OFFICES AND PHARMACIES, AND FIRST AND SECOND-DOSE
VACCINES TO MUNICIPALITIES

Cameron County Public Health will host a first-dose vaccination clinic on Saturday, April 17, 2021, at the Los Fresnos Fire Department located at 100 Rodeo Dr. in Los Fresnos. 3,500 Moderna Vaccines will be available for individuals 18 years of age and above on a first-come, first-served basis from 6:00 a.m. until supplies last.

Cameron County Public Health continues to work with area municipalities and this week will allocate a limited number of first-dose Moderna Vaccines to the following: La Feria, Los Indios, Port Isabel, and Rio Hondo. The cities of Port Isabel and Rio Hondo will host their vaccination clinic on Thursday, April 15, 2021, followed by the cities of La Feria and Los Indios on Saturday, April 17, 2021. All individuals are encouraged to visit the cities website for vaccine availability and registration.

Second-dose Moderna vaccines will be allocated to primary health care doctor's offices, pharmacies, and to the following municipalities: Harlingen, Los Indios, Port Isabel, Primera, and Santa Rosa.

A second-dose vaccination clinic at Precinct 1 Warehouse located at 2050 S. Browne Ave. in Brownsville will be held on Friday, April 16, 2021, for those individuals that were vaccinated with the first-dose of the Moderna Vaccine at the same location on Friday, March 19, 2021. Clinic will begin at 7:00 a.m. and continue through 9:00 a.m. Individuals are asked to please arrive with your COVID-19 Vaccination Record Card and can form line at 6:00 a.m.

For the vaccination clinic to be held on Saturday, April 17, 2021, at the Los Fresnos Fire Department, individuals are encouraged to complete the consent and registration forms ahead of time. Forms can be found at <https://www.cameroncounty.us/publichealth/index.php/coronavirus/> and will be provided on-site.

Cameron County will provide vaccination clinic updates as allocations are confirmed.
