In the matter of the Stock Law election held in and for Cameron County, Texas, on the 5th day of November, 1946 for the purpose of determining whether horses, mules, jacks, jennets and cattle shall be permitted to run at large in Cameron County, Texas, the following proceedings were had, to-wit:

BE IT REMEMBERED that, upon the 8th day of July, 1946, there was duly filed with the County Clerk, County Judge, County Commissioners' Court and the County Commissioners of Cameron County, Texas, a petition signed by G. J. Weikal, and many others, as required by law, praying for an election in Cameron County, Texas, for the purpose of determining whether horses, mules, jacks, jennets and cattle shall be permitted to run at large in said County; and said petition having been filed with the proper authorities as required by law, the Commissioner's Court at the next regular term thereafter, passed an order as required by law directing an election to be held throughout the entire limits of Cameron County, Texas, on the 5th day of November, 1946, which day was designated in said order, and which order was passed more than thirty (30) days before the holding of said election, and which election was conducted and the returns thereof made in accordance with the laws regulating general election, and which election was held on the 5th day of November, 1946, as provided in said order after public notice thereof had been duly made by the County Judge as required by law for more than thirty (30) days next before the holding of said election; by publication thereof in The Brownsville Herald, a daily paper published in Cameron County, Texas, and which notices were in all things in compliance with Article 6959 of the Revised Statutes of the State of Texas, and in compliance with Chapter 6, Title 121, of the Revised Statutes of the State of Texas; and

Be it remembered further that said election was duly and legally held on said election day, November 5, 1946, at the usual voting places in the several voting precincts in and for Cameron County, Texas, and for the whole County; and

Be it further remembered, that at said election the same was held by ballot and the voters desiring to prevent the animals designated in the said order from running at large, placed upon their ballots the words, "For the Stock Law" and those in favor of allowing the animals to run at large, place on their ballots the words, "Against the Stock Law"; and

Be it further remembered that thereafter on the 9th day of November, 1946, and on or before the 10th day after such election, the persons holding such election made due returns to the County Judge of all votes cast at their respective voting places as required by law, of all votes cast for and against said proposition submitted at said election; and

Be it further remembered that, thereafter and on the 9th day of November, 1946, the returns for said election so made by the persons holding said election, were duly opened, tabulated and counted by Oscar C. Dancy, County Judge of Cameron County, Texas, in the presence of H. D. Seago, County Clerk of Cameron County, Texas, and before J. N. Acevedo, a Justice of the Peace in and for Cameron County, Texas, in Precinct No. 2, Place No. 2; and

Commissioners' Court Minutes, REGULAR Term, 1946

HELD the 12th day of NOVEMBER 1946

Be it further remembered that, it appeared from said returns and from said tabulation and counting as aforesaid by and in the presence of said County Judge, County Clerk and said Justice of the Peace, that 2878 votes were duly and legally cast at the several voting precincts in Cameron County, Texas, for said Stock Law, and 184 votes were cast against the same at said several voting precincts in Cameron County, Texas.

NOW, THEREFORE, in view of the premises hereinbefore recited and in view of the fact that 2878 votes were duly and legally cast at the several voting precincts in Cameron County, Texas, for the passage of said Stock Law, and only 184 votes cast against same, it is ordered by the County Judge of Cameron County, Texas, and it is hereby declared that said Stock Law has duly and legally passed in Cameron County, Texas, and has resulted in favor of putting in operation said Law; and it is therefore ordered and decreed by the County Judge that said election has resulted in favor of the Countywide Stock Law in and for Cameron County, Texas; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED by the County Judge that all proceedings necessary to the validity of said election has been duly and legally had, and that said election was duly and legally held as required by law; and

D. Seago, is hereby ordered to so record the same; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this order, certified under the hand of the County Judge of Cameron County, Texas, and so recorded as aforesaid, shall be held, and shall be prima facie evidence that all the provisions of law respecting the petition for, the orders concerning, and the holding of said election, have been in all things fully complied with in presenting said petition, the action of the Court thereon ordering said election, the giving of notices, and the holding of said election, and in the counting and return of the votes, as hereinabove recited, and in the declaring of the result thereof as hereinabove recited; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED by the said County Judge of said Cameron County, Texas, that a proclamation shall be issued as required by law in said Chapter 6 of Title 121, of the Revised Statutes of the State of Texas, and that said proclamation shall be posted at the courthouse door as required by said Title and Chapter, and as particularly required by Article 6962 of the Revised Statutes of the State of Texas, all of which is now here ordered and decreed by the County Judge of Cameron County, Texas, this 9th day of November, A. THE STATE OF TEXAS (
COUNTY OF CAMERON (

BE IT KNOWN THAT:

WHEREAS, on this the 12th day of November, A. D. 1946, the Commissioners Court in and for Cameron County, Texas regularly met in session at the court house of Cameron County, Texas, at Brownsville, Texas, as required by law, to open the election returns and estimate the results and do those other things required by law, in connection with the regular election held on November 5th, 1946, just past,-and,

WHEREAS it has been called to the attention of said Court that in preparing the official ballot for said election, the printer of such ballot in printing thereon the name of Jas. S. Graham, of Brownsville, Texas, as candidate for Judge of the District Court for the 103rd Judicial District of Texas, through a typographical error, printed said candidate's name as "Jas. H. Graham", said middle initial "H" thus erroneously appearing on said ballot instead of the correct middle initial "S",-but,

WHEREAS, it appearing to the court that at the Primary Election preceeding said general election for the nomination of candidates, the said Jas. S. Graham, was duly and regularly nominated for said office mentioned, and that he was the only candidate for said office at said Primary Election, and that he was the only candidate for such office at said general election, and that no other candidate for such office by the name of Graham, or by any other name was printed upon said ballot,-and it is apparent and obvious that the printing of said initial "H" instead of "S" upon said ballot came about through a mere typographical error on the part of the printer, and that there can be no question as to the identity of the candidate for said office and the person for whom the ballots cast at such election were intended, the said candidate Jas. S. Graham likewise being the present holder of said office,-and,

WHEREAS it is clear and apparent to the court that it was the intention of the voters at said election who cast their votes in favor of the candidate for said office as the name appeared on the ballot, to cast their votes for the candidate Jas. S. Graham, the present incumbent of said office, regardless of the error made in said middle initial on the ballot itself, the said Jas. S. Graham having been the actual and only candidate for said office,-

NOW, THEREFORE, it is now here by said Court ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that in opening and estimating and declaring the results of the returns of said general election, and in doing those other things required by law in connection therewith, as regards the office of District Judge for the 103rd Judicial District of Texas, all such returns referring to said candidate Jas. S. Graham as Jas. H. Graham, shall be, and same are hereby ordered to be, treated in all respects as though said error in said middle initial had not been made, and as though such returns correctly reflected said name as "Jas. S. Graham", and it is further here ordered by the court that in drawing up subsequent certificates or other records as may be required by law in connection with the estimating of the returns of said election and the declaring of the results thereof and other formalities provided by law, as regards said office of District Judge for the 103rd Judicial District of Texas, the name of the candidate, Jas. S. Graham, shall in all cases be used instead of the incorrect name "Jas. H. Graham", without the necessity of any further orders being entered in this connection by this court.

This order is made and entered by the court at Brownsville, Texas in Cameron County, Texas, on
